YOUR OWN PRIVATE SANCTUARY!

Capturing the essence of our Australian landscape this unique mud brick home portrays a warmth and beauty like no other.

Situated on 16.94 ha (42 acres approx.) of clear land and bush the steel framed home has been built to ensure seasonal comfort via its solar passive design.

The two storey mud brick home holds many beautiful features, lots of timber, exposed Oregon beam work, stained - glass, imported German slate flooring and handmade mud bricks which were made on the property.

Comprising four generous bedrooms, formal and informal living areas, two bathrooms, excellent storage throughout, slow combustion wood heating, reverse - cycle air con(s), and two kitchens the home lends itself to a dual living arrangement or perhaps a B&B opportunity, it is also handicapped graded so the upper level can be accessed via a ramp.

Enjoy the outdoors - this property really is your own private oasis set amongst a spectacular backdrop of native bush land. With paved pathways weaving through lovely garden areas, an art studio/teenagers retreat, an in
